Polaris RANGER® Introduces RANGER CREW® 570-6

2015-10-06

Minneapolis, October 6, 2015 – Polaris® Industries Inc. (NYSE: PII) today introduced another new model to the Polaris RANGER® model lineup. The RANGER CREW® 570-6 joins the industry's No.1 selling utility vehicles (UTV) line for the value-minded consumer looking for a multi-passenger CREW option at a great price.

Retailing at $11,799 U.S., the RANGER CREW® 570-6 is the ultimate combination of quality, performance and value, with all the features needed to be a hard-working, reliable partner: seating for 6; long chassis measuring 60 in/152.4 cm wide and 146 in/370.8 cm long; tubular ROPS; proven 44 horsepower ProStar® 570 engine that is rear-mounted for quiet operation and easy access; 1,500 lbs/680 kg of towing capacity and payload; and 800 lbs/362 kg bed capacity.

To keep the ride smooth from the barn to the fields or on the work site, the RANGER CREW® 570-6 features the legendary adjustable Independent Rear Suspension (IRS) found on all RANGER vehicles. Whether carrying heavier loads or unwinding with family and friends when the job is done, the versatility of the adjustable rear suspension and shock positions delivers the comfort expected from a RANGER vehicle.

The RANGER CREW® 570-6, even at a value price, doesn't compromise on comfort. Tilt steering, two roomy bench seats for up to six occupants and industry-leading storage solutions are standard premium comfort features available on the vehicle. Polaris will offer a full line of Polaris Engineered Accessories™ for the new RANGER CREW® 570-6 to ensure it is one of the most versatile UTVs on the market. With more than 50 accessories available for the vehicle with revolutionary integration solutions such as easy-to-install Lock and Ride accessories, Polaris Engineered Accessories make it easy and fast to customize RANGER vehicles for a wide variety of tasks. Whether on the job site, in the tree stand or on the trail, Polaris offers intuitive accessory solutions to get the job done.

The RANGER CREW® 570-6 will be offered in Sage Green and be available in dealerships in November.
